Clients share job search tips

Immigrant job seekers gained valuable insight into the newcomer career journey through insider job search tips and client success stories during the first Skills Connect for Immigrants Client Appreciation and Networking event Wednesday, July 31 in Vancouver.

“Feedback from attendees and presenters has been overwhelmingly positive expressing appreciation for this special event that brought so much encouragement and support for newcomers to Canada involved in the job search process,” said Carol Cordeiro, Employer Relations Specialist for ISSoBC’s Skills Connect for Immigrants program.
