

A WORLD REFUGEE DAY EVENT AT THE LIBRARY

Current Issues for Refugees in Canada

- What has changed for recent world refugees coming to Canada?
- What is the impact of continuing crises in Africa, Europe and the Middle East?
- Are the refugees in Canada getting what they need?

Hear from these speakers on international and local issues:

- Laya Behbahani, a sessional lecturer for SFU's Labour Studies, who researches human rights violations of migrants in the Middle East.
- James Grunau, executive director of Journey Home Community, an association serving refugee claimant families.
- Speakers who have come to Canada as refugees.

In partnership with Immigrant Services Society of BC. Registration is required for this free event. Please register online at www.bpl.bc.ca/events or by phoning the Bob Prittie Metrotown Branch at 604-436-5400.
