

Advanced Literacy and Essential Skills in the Workplace Program

-Soft skill training for IT Professionals
to facilitate workplace integration and advancement -

Newcomer IT Professionals in this innovative and customized training:

- Boost self-confidence through a focus on oral and written communication
- Improve team building skills to work in a Canadian environment
- Gain inter-personal and intercultural skills through real workplace scenarios
- Grow their leadership skills
- Are connected with employers and receive job-related support, if applicable

Advanced Literacy and Essential Skills in the Workplace Program

-Soft skill training for IT Professionals
to facilitate workplace integration and advancement -

Eligibility Requirements:

- IT Training/Experience took place outside Canada
- Experience in IT areas including:
 - NOC 2174 Programmer
 - NOC 2172 Database Analyst/Data Administrator
 - NOC 2281 Network Technician/System Administrator
- English level: CLB7 or IELTS 6 or higher
- Naturalized Canadian citizen, Permanent Resident or Convention Refugee
- Employed, under-employed, or unemployed

Next Training Session: January to March, 2020 – Register: <http://bit.ly/ALESJan2020>

Contact: ales@issbc.org or call 604-684-2504