About GATEWAY TO TOURISM

The Gateway to Tourism Program will provide support to address the specific challenges of tourism/hospitality sector and employment barriers faced by newcomers and refugees.

In a sector that was the hardest hit by the COVID-A9 pandemic, the tourism and hospitality sector is now entering a new era that promises to be vibrant, innovative, and filled with new potential. In the Gateway to Tourism program, we believe that with the strategic career help from our Case Managers and Employer Relations Specialists, our clients can up-skill or re-skill to a profession in tourism/hospitality, and our sector-based employer partners that tap into our training & e-learning programming, will boost their recruitment and retention practices, and successfully pivot the changing labour market demands in the sector.

As an Employer Relations Specialist, you will report to the Manager – Gateway to Tourism and you will focus on serving skilled professional clients who require assistance in finding meaningful work. In addition to marketing job placement services to generate job leads and placements for unemployed clients that are consistent with ISSofBC policies and funder's guidelines, you are also responsible for building and fostering positive working relationships with employer contacts to provide access and support to the employer training services available in the program, facilitate group workshops and/or events with employers. You will also provide job information and resources to clients, pre-screen clients and employers, conduct quality job matches and job referrals and provide placement-related coaching and support, and conduct follow-up activities with clients and employers.
